27-56	Lamberts Marsh is one of a few remaining places to walk within the village, where there is very little traffic and has firm footing. Many people walk here and especially those needing firm ground for pushchairs, wheel chairs and other walking aids, and for people who need firm ground rather than fields. The lane being hedge lined and with small trees it offers a lovely peaceful and safe recreation space. The country hedges provide natural habitat for birds and small mammals, and the ditches, though not well maintained, are an essential water catchment and offer considerable help with the flood risk to our homes.
